Looking for an extraordinary team-building experience near Frankfurt?

Our Llama Expedition combines outdoor adventure, teamwork and problem-solving in the unique setting of Kloster Eberbach and the surrounding Rheingau countryside.

Participants follow clues, overcome obstacles and work towards a common goal while accompanied by friendly and curious llamas.

This experience encourages communication, collaboration and creative thinking while offering plenty of memorable moments in nature.

The adventure begins near the historic Kloster Eberbach, one of the most famous landmarks in the Rhine-Main region. After an introduction to the programme and the animals, teams receive their mission and prepare for the expedition ahead.

Using maps, GPS devices, photos, sketches and riddles, participants navigate through the landscape while completing a series of team challenges. Along the route, natural obstacles and problem-solving exercises require cooperation, strategy and effective communication. The llamas accompany the teams and help transport important materials needed for the final mission. Their calm and curious nature adds a unique dynamic to the experience and makes the event especially memorable.

Throughout the expedition, teams collect information, resources and tools that will later be needed for a collaborative construction project. At the final destination, participants work together to plan, build and safely cross a rope bridge using the materials gathered during the journey.

The event combines navigation, teamwork, outdoor adventure and practical problem-solving into one engaging experience that strengthens trust and collaboration.

To conclude the day, groups can optionally enjoy a regional outdoor meal, visit Kloster Eberbach or participate in a traditional Rheingau wine tasting.
